Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our darling baby.
MR. AND MRS. MIKE DAVIS

A letter from S J Rogers to one of the local members of the Methodist church states that Rev E M Crandall has been appointed pastor of Tombstone-Benson charge. He is expected to arrive in a few days. Supt. Rogers speaks of Rev. Mr Crandall as a good man, and believes he will do splendid work.

Great Interest Taken in Eucalyptus Culture

Experiment Station bulletin says No group of plants, perhaps, is the subject of greater inquiry in southern Arizona at the present time than the eucalyptus. The importance which this remarkable genus is assuming in parts of California as a producer of wood that can be turned to a variety of purposes, together with the similarity of the valleys of southern Arizona, and certain interior ones of California where the trees are growing successfully, is responsible largely for the growing interest. On account of the marvelous growth of the Eucalyptus which enables the California planter to net handsome profits from his groves, it is only natural that their planting should be given consideration here.

There appears to be good cause to believe that they may be grown successfully with limited irrigation on lands that are of secondary value for agricultural purposes at the present time on account of limited water supply.

The Benson Press says that at the head of the Arizona list the report place the forest red gum (terricornis), red gum (rostrata), desert gum (tridactylus) and red box (polyanthema), all of which are growing very nicely in Benson, though the red gum has so far outgrown the others.

Electrocuted While Looking for Horses

The Phoenix Democrat says: Regarding the reported warnings against climbing the steel towers of the Roosevelt power transmission line, Charles A Chambers, a farmer living near Mesa, was electrocuted and his body burned to a blackened and unrecognizable mass yesterday about noon in one of the towers near his home. He had climbed up to look for his horses. He unfortunately climbed high enough to get among the wires. His head was almost burned from his body, and his abdomen horribly burned by the wire parted and his remains fell. Mrs Chambers, who had stepped outside her kitchen, witnessed the death of her husband. When she first saw him his body was a mass of flames. She saw him fall and notified neighbors. An inquest was held shortly after. He leaves a widow and six small children.

Meeting of Board of Supervisors

The board of supervisors besides awarding the bid for the building of the hospital on the city poor farm at Douglas to Olson & Co of Bisbee for the sum of $29,990 and awarding the bid for the sinking of the artesian well on the ground to C O Bonham for $215 for sinking the well to a depth of 1-0 feet, transacted considerable business.

From the designs filed the county poor farm will be a very attractive building and an imposing structure. Ample room will be provided for various wards, operating rooms, detention wards, etc.

The resignation of Ed Williams as county immigration commissioner was accepted and W P White of the Cochise County Press of Benson was given the place.

A number of road matters were disposed of, the principal one being that a strip of ground between St David and Fairbank through the land of A Marvin will be condemned for the purpose of opening it for a county road.

The fee bills of the various constables and justices of the peace were referred to the district attorney for auditing.

A few claims were audited and allowed and adjourned to meet on the first Monday of next month.

Bryan Will Winter in Arizona

William Jennings Bryan will spend the coming winter in Arizona.

Bryan said: "I shall spend the coming winter in Arizona during my time between Douglas, Tucson and Phoenix. As to the report that I shall move to Texas I would say that I have contemplated a winter residence in the Lone Star state but I shall maintain my permanent residence in London. However, I expect to spend the coming winter in Arizona, coming some time in November."

Maricopa Official Bitten by a Skunk

Chairman Leo M Hoghe of the board of supervisors of Maricopa county, will leave Phoenix for Chicago to undergo a course of treatment at the Pasteur institute for a skunk bite he received Monday morning about 1 o'clock.

Hoghe attempted to kick a skunk away from the bed of his daughter at his ranch across the Salt river and did succeed in kicking the animal once, but the second time it bit him on the outside of the left foot through a slipper.

Lying in bed, Hoghe came to Phoenix, where Dr H A Hughes made several incisions in the vicinity of the wound and made hypodermic injections to counteract the effects of the poison.

After Hoghe kicked the skunk the second time and was bitten, his dogs attacked the animal and soon killed it. The body of the animal was brought to Phoenix to be examined by the doctor, who will decide whether or not it was a hydrophobia skunk.

At a meeting of the Territorial Fair commission, just concluded at Phoenix, the final tickets were put on the preparations for the fifth Territorial fair which will this year be held the second week in November—the 8th to the 11th. Bigger and better than ever before, is the promise the commission is giving; and there seems to be facts to bear them out.

Arizona Mountains Scenes of Beauty

A man never knows Arizona until he has ridden for days in the forests of the White mountains and seen its ocean of timber and its world of grass. Go to the mountains and sleep out under Arizona's deep blue sky. Go and see the clear streams of water, the millions of flowers, the pretty glades and the bubbling springs. Surry is the man who knows only our wealth of red copper, or of the dollars that are made from our wealth of cattle and sheep, or our fields of alfalfa and grain. You are not an Arizona man till you have been to Arizona's mountains.—George Crosby's Paper.

Sending Out Tax Notices

County Treasurer Hicks has an extra force of clerks engaged in mailing out notices of county taxes that are due to the various property owners in the county of the amount of their taxes for this year. A circuit accompanies the notice calling attention to the fact that unless the taxes are paid by December 20th they will become delinquent and from that time will bear interest at one percent per cent until paid as well as fifteen cents added for each tract, or lot, four per cent on the amount of taxes, interest and costs as provided by law. If not paid within 60 days of delinquency, suit may be brought to collect the tax lien. No personal checks are received by the county treasurer.

A meeting for the purpose of organizing a Southwestern Editorial association has been called at El Paso for the week of November 1-7. This is the week of the El Paso Fair and Exposition, and as a large number of the editors and publishers of the southwest are planning to attend the fair, it is considered a propitious time for the formation of such an organization.
